JURORS ANNOUNCED FOR MARCH TERM OF COURT

"Maine with its great wildlife interests is naturally concerned in all worthwhile steps for conservation," Governor Lewis O. Barrows said today in announcing National Wildlife Restoration

Maine, March 20-26. The purpose of the week, as outlined by the Governor, will be to afford a permanent method of financing the national, state and local federations and to acquaint the public with the facts of the crisis that exists regarding wildlife on the North American continent.

Wildlife Week

The Week is sponsored by the general Wildlife Federation, which has a membership of five million people. It is an organization uniting all conservation forces into one powerful body that will by its voting strength and power when called upon locally or nationally, demand non-political, fair and intelligent handling of the country's natural resources.

Mrs. Burton L. Preston of Portland is director for Maine of Wildlife Week activities. Governor Barrows will serve as honorary chairman of the Maine committee of the General Wildlife Federation.

Fish and game associations, shooting clubs, garlen clubs, civic organizations, 4-H Clubs, and all other groups interested in conservation will join in observance of the week.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Childs from Saturday to Tuesday were Mrs. Donald Preble, Miss Nan Wall, Winthrop Newcomb and Wing Marshall of Needham and Dover, Mass.

Her whole life, a long span of full and useful years, was lived in the house where she was born. Her parents were pioneers and she had great pride in the traditions of her family and her native town. She was well-versed in the history of our early settlers and her keen recollections were of frequent service.

The limitations accompanying old age distressed her only as they restricted her service to others. For herself she cared little.

We rejoice that her days of helplessness were few, well-knowing that she grieved at forced inactivity. As a kind, reverent, humble and helpful friend leaves us we mourn her passing and give thanks for the blessings she bestowed during many years.

WHY CUT ICE FOR NEXT SUMMER'S MILK COOLING?

Dairymen are using electric milk coolers because the cooling process is faster, saves labor, costs less. The "Esco" milk cooler keeps icy-cold water up around the neck of every can, with an automatic, constant water leveler. It gives complete circulation and positive controlled agitation of the entire cold water bath - cools all the milk to 50° or lower in an hour. The entire daily production is properly cooled and kept cold until shipped.

You will get a lower bacterial count and a higher quality milk with electric milk cooling.
